The teen aged models will appear at the Plush Horse Restaurant from 12:30 to 2 p.m. Sundays. —PRESS photo

Upper class girls from Southern California high schools will be given a preview of college life when they take part in the annual Open House at Marymount College on Saturday. Beginning at 1:30 p.m., the visiting juniors and seniors will be welcomed by Mother M. du Sacre Coeur, R.S.H.M., president of the college, and will follow a concerned orientation program, meeting with advisors, faculty and students for discussions and question-answer periods. Program for the afternoon includes brief talks by Charles W. Bay, honors program; Miss Florence Schmidt, education; Mrs. Geoffrey Warren, fine arts; James F. Andrews, language and literature; Mrs. Peter Eastman, science and mathematics, and Dr. Jan de Swart, social sciences. The open house will close with a social hour ending at 4 p.m. in the student-faculty center on the Palos Verdes Estates campus.

Cranberry Salads Add Zest to Meal

An assortment of cranberry salads will add zest to winter meals. The sparkling flavor of the fruit is so very right with hearty meat dishes served during cool months.

You'll find good combinations to make with fresh cranberries during their season. Then there are wonderful salads to make with canned cranberry products any time of the year.

Cranberry Relish Salad

- 2 cups fresh cranberries
- 1 orange
- 1 pkg. orange flavored gelatin
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 cup boiling water
- 1/2 cup thinly sliced celery
- 1/2 cup diced apple
- 1/2 cup chopped nuts

Sort and wash cranberries, quarter orange and remove any seeds. Grind cranberries and orange together, using medium blade of food chopper. Let stand 30 minutes. Drain and save juice.

Dissolve gelatin and sugar in boiling water. Add 1/2 cup of the juice drained from cranberry mixture. Chill until partly set. Fold in remaining ingredients. Unmold onto crisp lettuce.

Serve with mayonnaise thinned with a little whipped cream.

Cranberry Cream Cheese
Hold

- 1 pkg. lemon flavored gelatin
- 1 cup hot cranberry juice
- 1 cup cold cranberry juice
- 1 3 oz. pkg. cream cheese
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 1/2 cup well drained crushed pineapple
- 1/2 cup finely chopped celery
- 1/4 cup heavy cream, whipped

Dissolve gelatin in hot cranberry juice. Add cold cranberry juice. Add cream cheese and heat until smooth. Chill until partially set. Fold in remaining ingredients.

Pour into mold. Chill until firm. Unmold onto salad greens for serving.

Cranberry Jewel Salad

- 1 pkg. raspberry flavored gelatin
- 1 1/2 cups hot water
- 1 orange
- 1 can whole cranberry sauce

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Chill until it begins to jell. Quarter orange, remove seeds, and put through food chopper, using medium blade. Fold orange and cranberry sauce into partially set gelatin.

Put into molds. Chill until firm. Serve in crisp lettuce cups.

Dear Editor

The members of the Torrance Fire Fighters Association wish to thank you and your staff personally for allowing our recent article on "Open Examinations for Fire Chief" to be printed in your paper.

We realize that our article opposed your editorial stand on the issue and appreciate the space given us in the paper in order that our position could be stated. We firmly uphold the democratic process as being the only true way of providing all the facts for the people.

I wish to point out at this time that another competitive newspaper serving the South-Bay area refused to print our article because it differed from their editorial

THE MAN AT THE KEY

Open warfare is brewing between Democratic party pros at the national level, and the Americans for Democratic Action on the basis of the ADA's unpopular views favoring Red China and its admission to the UN, according to Washington sources.

policy. Is this the way to keep the public informed on important issues or are they only to hear one side of the story?

It is indeed heartening to know that the Press and its staff believes in a "Free Press."

Hats off to all of you. With people like you serving our community we shall always be assured of keeping Torrance "The All-American City."

Very truly yours,
Stanley H. Sellers,
Secretary, Torrance Fire Fighters Assn.
